Also Present: Mary Flagg, Renee Knutilla

I. The meeting began at 6:32 PM.

II. Katie Levene moved to approve the minutes from November 16, 2004. Eric Printz seconded the motion, and it was unanimously approved.

Danielle Stanczak arrived at 6:35 PM, and Eric Schmidt at 6:37 PM.

III. Mayor Wysocki reported that the DARE program is being studied by GMR Marketing. He suggested that the Board help GMR by providing youth insights into the program's effectiveness or lack thereof. He also reminded Board members of the upcoming elections.

Maria Peot arrived at 6:42 PM.

IV. Mary Flagg announced that the old Library will close on January 30th. The new Library will open on Monday, February 14th. Its grand opening will be February 20th.

V. Renee Knutilla shared a thank-you note to the Board from one of the senior citizens helped during SAYES volunteer day.

VI. Kristi Prokop will be in charge of getting new Board T-shirts made. Dan Burkhardt suggested that perhaps fleece, zip-up sweatshirts, with a more professional look, should be made instead. The idea should be looked into.

VII. The Battle of the Bands is still on schedule. Flyers have been sent out.

VIII. The Board concluded that there is not enough interest to continue the project of a public access television commercial.

IX. The Board might use part of its next meeting to allow subcommittees to meet. Schmidt suggested the formation of a PR Committee. The idea was supported, and the committee should meet before the next meeting to decide how best to encourage students to vote in the upcoming election.

X. Eric Schmidt moved to adjourn the meeting at 7:44 PM. Eric Printz seconded the motion, and it was unanimously approved. The next official meeting will be Tuesday, February 15, 2005.
