New Berlin Police Midnight Basketball Program

Midnight Basketball is a diversionary program supervised by the police department each Friday night in January, February and March. The program is held at the New Berlin West Fieldhouse and immediately follows basketball games during the basketball season. The program is open to all high school students from New Berlin.

The program runs a weekly 3-on-3 or 4-on-4 half court tournament with t-shirt and gift certificates given away to students.

Contact Community Service Officer Tony Fus at 262-780-8148 or fus@nbpolice.org for a schedule or further information.
